Dear Parish Family,

Trinity Sunday is always special to me.... I celebrated my Mass of Thanksgiving as a newly ordained priest on this feast. My actual anniversary was two weeks ago on the 1st June. One of the gifts for my ordination was a friend offered to preach at this Mass of thanksgiving.... thinking I would be exhausted having been ordained in the morning! So, He began... "The Trinity is mystery. In the name of the Father, Son and Holy Spirit". He then started to walk off. He did come back and preached after much applause and horror by the bishop who was present.

Is the Trinity mystery? Sometimes trying to explain God is simply inadequate with our language. Calling God our father - God is not like our human fathers;
if we say God is creator then we reduce God to a functional role; or if we say God is male or female then we have locked God into what we might want but not what God is. Jesus revealed God as persons...Father, Son and Spirit.
Now the biblical word for person comes from a Greek term (πρόσωπο) prosopon or a mask, just like a mask an actor might wear on a stage which designates the character that they are playing. Jesus revealed to us the Trinity through the Gospels that the Father has all and shares it with the Son;
the Son in turn shares it with us and leave us with the Spirit as teacher and guide. The three are unified in purpose and is an invitation to enter into this relationship with God who is love.

One of my favourite pieces of art on the Trinity is by the fifteenth century monk Andrei Rublev. Rublev described the Trinity as the embodiment of spiritual unity, equality, peace, harmony and mutual love that beckons us welcome. A welcome at the table where love, peace and forgiveness are found. Baptised in the name of the trinity, we are called to share in the divine and shape our families and our communities to reflect this invitation. Do our families, friendships, homes, schools, communities reflect these?

Last Sunday and following on this Sunday we are holding our Gifting Sunday (s). Given last weekend many were away for the long weekend. On the pews and online there is a form where we ask you, as a disciple gifted in the Spirit, to volunteer your time and talent. There is an explanation of some of these ministries on the back of the form, as there are some new ministries such as Children's Liturgy, assisting with reading in one of our schools, youth ministry and many more .... What are the gifts that you can bring?

Have a great week everyone and stay warm.....

Fr Darryl Mackie

World Elder Abuse Day

World Elder Abuse Awareness Day is recognised annually on 15 June and brings to light the cultural, social, economic and demographic factors that underpin the negative experiences of elderly populations. The World Health Organization defines the abuse of older people – or elder abuse – as “a single, or repeated act, or lack of appropriate action, occurring within any relationship where there is an expectation of trust which causes harm or distress to an older person.” There are many ways to support the elderly within our communities and identify when further support is needed.

- How to recognise and respond to elder abuse.
- Supporting older people and their representatives to raise concerns and access services.

- Charter of Aged Care Rights.
- The value of advocacy.

This session will be presented by Briony Underwood, Team Leader Education, Elder Rights Advocacy Victoria (part of Older Persons Advocacy Network, OPAN).

With A Light Hear

A little old woman who is a devout Catholic lives next door to a loud-mouthed atheist.

Every morning the lady goes to her front porch and shouts, "Praise the Lord."

Every day the atheist neighbour can't help himself and shouts back, "There is no God!"

The lady begins to experience financial hardship with cost-of-living rises and buying her weekly groceries becomes more difficult. However, every morning she continues to go out on her front porch and asks God for help with her groceries and shouts, "Praise the Lord!"

One morning she discovers three bags of groceries on her porch and immediately yells. "Praise the Lord!"

At that moment the atheist jumps out from behind some bushes and says, "Ha, got you. There's no God. I bought those groceries for you."

The lady looks at him and smiles. Then she shouts even louder. "Praise the Lord! Not only did you provide for me, Lord, you also made Satan pay for the groceries!"

The Liturgy of the Word

First Reading

Proverbs 8:22-31

A reading from the book of Proverbs

Wisdom was born before the earth was made.

The Wisdom of God cries aloud:

The Lord created me when his purpose first unfolded,
before the oldest of his works.
From everlasting I was firmly set,
from the beginning, before earth came into being.
The deep was not, when I was born,
there were no springs to gush with water.
Before the mountains were settled,
before the hills, I came to birth;
before he made the earth, the countryside,
or the first grains of the world's dust.
When he fixed the heavens firm, I was there,
when he drew a ring on the surface of the deep,
when he thickened the clouds above,
when he fixed fast the springs of the deep,
when he assigned the sea its boundaries
– and the waters will not invade the shore –
when he laid down the foundations of the earth,
I was by his side, a master craftsman,
delighting him day after day,
ever at play in his presence,
at play everywhere in his world,
delighting to be with the sons of men.

To indicate the end of the reading, the reader acclaims:

The word of the Lord.

All reply:

Thanks be to God.

Responsorial Psalm

Ps 8:4-9. R. v.2

(R.) O Lord, our God, how wonderful your name in all the earth!

1. When I see the heavens, the work of your hands,
the moon and the stars which you arranged,
what is man that you should keep him in mind,
mortal man that you care for him? (R.)
2. Yet you have made him little less than a god;
with glory and honour you crowned him,
gave him power over the works of your hand,
put all things under his feet. (R.)
3. All of them, sheep and cattle, yes, even the savage beasts,
birds of the air, and fish
that make their way through the waters. (R.)

Second Reading

Romans 5:1-5

A reading from the letter of St Paul to the Romans

To God through Christ in the love which is poured out through the Spirit.

Through our Lord Jesus Christ, by faith we are judged righteous and at peace with God, since it is by faith and through Jesus that we have entered this state of grace in which we can boast about looking forward to God's glory. But that is not all we can boast about; we can boast about our sufferings. These sufferings bring patience, as we know, and patience brings perseverance, and perseverance brings hope, and this hope is not deceptive, because the love of God has been poured into our hearts by the Holy Spirit which has been given us.

To indicate the end of the reading, the reader acclaims:

The word of the Lord.

All reply:

Thanks be to God.

Gospel

Reader:

From the holy Gospel according to John.

All:

Glory to you, O Lord.

John 16:12-15

Whatever the Father has is mine. The Spirit will receive what I give and tell you about it.

Jesus said to his disciples:

‘I still have many things to say to you but they would be too much for you now.
But when the Spirit of truth comes he will lead you to the complete truth, since he will not be speaking as from himself
but will say only what he has learnt;
and he will tell you of the things to come.
He will glorify me,
since all he tells you will be taken from what is mine.
Everything the Father has is mine;
that is why I said:
All he tells you
will be taken from what is mine.’

Reader:

The Gospel of the Lord.

All:

Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

All are seated.

Reflection on the Word

A short period of reflection may be observed.

Profession of Faith

Leader:

In union with the whole Church
let us profess our faith.

All:

I believe in God,
the Father almighty, Creator of heaven and earth,
and in Jesus Christ, his only Son, our Lord,

At the words that follow, up to and including the Virgin Mary, all bow.

who was conceived by the Holy Spirit,
born of the Virgin Mary,
suffered under Pontius Pilate,
was crucified, died and was buried;
he descended into hell;
on the third day he rose again from the dead;
he ascended into heaven,
and is seated at the right hand of God the Father almighty;
from there he will come to judge the living and the dead.
I believe in the Holy Spirit,
the holy catholic Church,
the communion of saints,
the forgiveness of sins,
the resurrection of the body,
and life everlasting. Amen.

Prayer of the Faithful

Leader: Brothers and sisters, through the love of the Holy Trinity, let us bring our intentions before God.

Reader: That the Holy Father, Pope Leo, will continue to lead the Church in worship of the Father, Son and Holy Spirit.
In your glory:

All: Lord, hear our prayer.

Reader: That leaders who influence our laws and society will promote justice through the commandments of God.

In your glory:

All: Lord, hear our prayer.

find liberty and freedom.

In your glory:

All: Lord, hear our prayer.

believers in the unity and love of the Father, Son and Holy Spirit.

In your glory:

All: Lord, hear our prayer.

through the Spirit of truth, especially our loved ones.
In your glory:

All: Lord, hear our prayer.

Reader: That through the Holy Trinity, those who have died, will find their home with the Lord, especially our loved ones.
In your glory:

All: Lord, hear our prayer.

Leader: God our Father, through the Holy Trinity you work marvels for us. Hear our prayers and help us to honour the gifts you give us through the Father, Son and Holy Spirit. We ask this through Christ our Lord.

All: Amen.

The Lord's Prayer

Leader:

At the Saviour's command
and formed by divine teaching,
we dare to say:

All:

Our Father, who art in heaven,
hallowed be thy name;
thy kingdom come,
thy will be done
on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread,
and forgive us our trespasses,
as we forgive those who trespass against us;
and lead us not into temptation,
but deliver us from evil.
For the kingdom, the power and the glory are yours,
now and forever.
Amen.

The Concluding Rite Blessing

Leader:

Through the resurrection of his Son
God has redeemed us and made us his children.
May the Lord bless us with joy and fill us with fruits of the Spirit.

All make the sign of the cross during the blessing.

All:

Amen.

Dismissal

Leader:

Let us go in peace..

All:

Thanks be to God.
