FOURTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME YEAR A 29 JANUARY 2023

In this Sunday's Gospel, the familiar sermon on the Mount, contains the essence of Christ's teaching.

The Beatitudes, list the qualities that Christ wishes to see in his followers, qualities which were exemplified in his own life.

The popular opinion in religious circles at the time of Jesus, held that God's blessings were to be seen in prosperity, power, prestige, and popularity. Therefore, the poor and powerless, or the victims of misfortune or handicap, were regarded as sinful and cursed by God.

The Beatitudes, suggest a new vision of values and attitudes. Jesus gives a new concept of who are blest by God.

We acknowledge the traditional custodians of this land, the Awabakal People who, long before us lived, loved, educated and raised their children on this Country. We pay our respects to Elders past and present and we recognise the young people who are our future. We acknowledge all Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander families in our communities. We respect their deep physical and spiritual connections to Country through their stories, traditions and living cultures.

REFLECTION FOR 4TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME 29TH JAN 2023

Today's Gospel from Matthew 5 1-12a is one of the most explosive messages that Jesus ever made!

Many people have tried to sanitise it and make it warm and fuzzy. They are not doing us any favours in doing that.

Karl Rahner SJ, once said, "When Christians reach more than 20% of the population they no longer have any effect in changing the culture around them. At that point people become Christians just because it is the acceptable thing to do, not because they're really committed to carrying on the ministry of Jesus. Often they are an obstacle to real Christians." Ouch!

When Jesus gave the Sermon on the Mount, he was in effect creating his "Manifesto" of what it would mean to become followers of his, and co-workers in the creation of God's Kingdom.

Christ is asking us to be open to "Metanoia".

I hadn't heard the word "Metanoia" until fairly recently, and I must admit it did not really catch my attention at first. Just an old Greek word obviously! How wrong I was! Metanoia means to change, to be determined to change, one's value system. To awaken to something better, bigger and outside myself!

The Kingdom of God refers to God being present in and working effectively in our everyday lives. Not somewhere over the rainbow, but here, today, in the mess and worries of our lives!

In Jesus' Manifesto he turns mainstream thinking on its head!

In effect he is saying"

The world says...blessed are the rich.....but I say blessed are the poor.

The World says...blessed are the strong.....but I say blessed are the gentle.

The world says...blessed are the powerful... but I say blessed are the meek.

Jesus is giving us a counter point to the ways of the world. To create the Kingdom we need to look better, to look deeper, to put ourselves into the place of others and see with empathy. To evaluate what we hear and judge with our heart what is right. In other words to be open to Metanoia! To be open to change and being changed. This is our biggest challenge in today's world. We are bombarded daily, through media, with all sorts of views, values and stories that can do serious damage to our beliefs, our thoughts and our self worth if we are not wary. Our greatest gift from God is our ability to adapt and change. To learn and to grow.

This challenge that the "Beatitudes" throws out to us is that we are given a new lens to look through what is thrown at us daily. To look at things with the lens of our faith and to judge them on what would Jesus say, not what the world says.

Only when we can evolve daily, change ourselves and those around us, can we make changes that WILL make it possible to experience God among us.

My challenge this week, is to look at each "Blessed are's".. and see what they are telling me today, in this place in my world. What is it calling me to change and be better?

Scary!!! Uta

FIFTH SUNDAYS

As you are aware, the Parish Vigil Mass is celebrated at Morisset on the 1st & 3rd Sundays of the Month, and at Cooranbong on the 2nd and 4th Sundays. When there is a 5th Sunday in the Month, the Vigil is also celebrated at Cooranbong. The question has been asked, how does the 'Fifth Sunday' work in relation to Mass being celebrated at Cooranbong, when it is the Fourth Saturday? The Universal Mass schedule follows that the Vigil is attached to the Sunday that is being celebrated, and considered part of that Sunday.

PRIEST SUPERVISOR

Fr Greg Barker the Diocesan Administrator has appointed Fr Joseph Figuardo to the position of Priest Supervisor for Morisset Parish. Fr John Purnell will continue as Sacramental Priest. Fr Joseph is also the Parish Priest of Blackbutt South Parish, (Cardiff, Kotara, Adamstown.) as well as the Dean of the Wattagan Deanery.

Fr Joseph has indicated that he would like to celebrate Mass this Tuesday 31st January 9.30am at Morisset, so that he can meet the parishioners. After Mass he would like to adjourn to the Callinan Centre for a 'conversation and cuppa'. School will also be back for 2023, and it will also be an opportunity for him to meet the school staff. Please bring a plate.

FORMATION FOR MINISTRY 2023:

This year as we hopefully begin to return to more normal life as a worshipping community, we are planning to hold regular "Formation" sessions for the various Ministries which help us worship as a community. Some of our Ministries are Proclaimers, Altar Servers, Presenter of the Gifts, Welcomers, Audio Visual and Sound. Those who wish to learn more about any of these ministries and take up the job, now is your opportunity to do so. For those of us already actively involved in Ministry, it is an ideal opportunity to revise and upskill. I find it amazing that, each time I undergo formation, just what I missed last time. It is humbling at times to realise that I don't know everything- there is always more to learn. Isn't that just like normal life? We always learn, get deeper insights, as we grow older! OR perhaps we should! Once we have experienced the formation and learned from each other, we will have the opportunity to discern if this is what we wish to do, then when we are ready, we will be Commissioned in that Ministry for a two-year period, after which we will receive further formation.

ROSTERS:

To give us a bit of breathing room, February Rosters will roll over from previous list. March, hopefully we will begin the new Roster which will continue through this year Thank you to the 28 people who have completed the new ministry sheets.

If you haven't already done so, but would like to be included in the various ministries, please complete the sign-up sheet. which is available at the back of the Church, ASAP.

NB: one sign up per person, not one per family. It gets confusing!

Completed Forms may be placed in the box at the back of the Church, or you can complete the online form by clicking on the Rostered Ministries Sign Up button on the home page of our website: <https://www.vianneymorisset.org/>

This resource provides opportunities for prayer, faith-sharing, and outreach in our local community. This resource will be available at the end of January.

AN ACT OF SPIRITUAL COMMUNION

My Jesus,
I believe that You are present in the Most Holy Sacrament.
I love You above all things,
and I desire to receive You into my soul.
Since I cannot at this moment receive You sacramentally, come at least spiritually into my heart.
I embrace You as if You were already there and unite myself wholly to You.
Never permit me to be separated from You.
Amen.

let us praise the Lord Jesus Christ.

A brief period of silence follows.

The Liturgy of the Word

First Reading

Zep 2:3; 3:12-13

A reading from the prophet Zephaniah

In your midst I will leave a humble and a lowly people.

Seek the Lord
all you, the humble of the earth, who obey his commands.
Seek integrity,
seek humility:
you may perhaps find shelter
on the day of the anger of the Lord.
In your midst I will leave a humble and lowly people, and those who are left in Israel will seek refuge in the name of the Lord.
They will do no wrong,
will tell no lies;
and the perjured tongue will no longer be found in their mouths.
But they will be able to graze and rest with no one to disturb them.

To indicate the end of the reading, the reader acclaims:

The word of the Lord.

All reply:

Thanks be to God.

Responsorial Psalm

Ps 145:7-10. R. Mt 5:3

(R.) Happy the poor in spirit;
the kingdom of heaven is theirs!

1. It is the Lord who keeps faith forever, who is just to those who are oppressed.
It is he who gives bread to the hungry,
the Lord, who sets prisoners free. (R.)
2. It is the Lord who gives sight to the blind, who raises up those who are bowed down,
the Lord, who protects the stranger and upholds the widow and orphan. (R.)
3. It is the Lord who loves the just but thwarts the path of the wicked.
The Lord will reign for ever,
Zion's God, from age to age. (R.)

Second Reading

1 Cor 1:26-31

A reading from the first letter of St Paul to the Corinthians

God has chosen what is weak by human reckoning.

Take yourselves, brothers, at the time when you were called:
how many of you were wise in the ordinary sense of the word,
how many were influential people, or came from noble families?
No, it was to shame the wise that God chose what is foolish by human reckoning, and to shame what is strong that he chose what is weak by human reckoning; those whom the world thinks common and contemptible are the ones that God has chosen – those who are nothing at all to show up those who are everything. The human race has nothing to boast about to God, but you, God has made members of Christ Jesus and by God's doing he has become our wisdom, and our virtue, and our holiness, and our freedom. As scripture says: if anyone wants to boast, let him boast about the Lord.

To indicate the end of the reading, the reader acclaims:

The word of the Lord.

All reply:

Thanks be to God.

Gospel

Reader:

From the holy Gospel according to Matthew.

All:

Glory to you, O Lord.

Mt 5:1-12

Happy are the poor in spirit.

Seeing the crowds, Jesus went up the hill. There he sat down and was joined by his disciples. Then he began to speak. This is what he taught them:

'How happy are the poor in spirit:
theirs is the kingdom of heaven.

Happy the gentle:

they shall have the earth for their heritage.

Happy those who mourn:

they shall be comforted.

Happy those who hunger and thirst for what is right:

they shall be satisfied.

Happy the merciful:

they shall have mercy shown them.

Happy the pure in heart:

they shall see God.

Happy the peacemakers:

they shall be called sons of God.

Happy those who are persecuted in the cause of right:

theirs is the kingdom of heaven.

'Happy are you when people abuse you and persecute you and speak all kinds of calumny against you on my account. Rejoice and be glad, for your reward will be great in heaven.'

Reader:

The Gospel of the Lord.

All:

Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

All are seated.

Reflection on the Word

Q. In what ways can the Beatitudes be seen in parallel with the Ten Commandments?

Q. How do the Beatitudes provide a guide for living in right relationship with God and others?

Q. How might you answer the claim that the Beatitudes just teach Christians to accept bad things?

Q. How can the Beatitudes be misused?

Profession of Faith

Leader:

In union with the whole Church

let us profess our faith.

All:

I believe in God,
the Father almighty, Creator of heaven and earth,
and in Jesus Christ, his only Son, our Lord,

At the words that follow, up to and including the Virgin Mary, all bow.

who was conceived by the Holy Spirit,
born of the Virgin Mary,
suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, died and was buried;
he descended into hell;
on the third day he rose again from the dead;
he ascended into heaven,
and is seated at the right hand of God the Father almighty;
from there he will come to judge the living and the dead.
I believe in the Holy Spirit,
the holy catholic Church,

the communion of saints,
the forgiveness of sins,
the resurrection of the body,
and life everlasting. Amen.
