BAPTISMS & SACRAMENTS

Booking via Parish Website

Baptisms celebrated most Sundays.

Dear Parish Family,

...hear the pleading of your people and bestow your peace on our times.

These words from today's Opening Prayer of the Mass feel especially appropriate when we consider what is happening in our world: the continuing wars in Ukraine; Israel and Gaza; civil unrest in the USA; and tensions and threats of invasion in various parts of the globe. The world needs peace now more than ever — and for this we pray.

You will notice that we have returned to the colour green, which indicates that we are now in Ordinary Time. Ordinary Time is the longest of the five liturgical seasons (Advent, Christmas, Lent, Easter, and Ordinary Time) and covers most of the year. It begins with the Feast of the Baptism of the Lord and concludes with the Feast of Christ the King. Of course, it will be interrupted in a few weeks when we begin our Lenten journey, which leads us into the joy of Easter. Why the colour green? Green symbolises new life, growth, and hope — life restored, as we see in the plants and grass after the rain this past week. So Ordinary Time is anything but “ordinary” — it is extraordinary.

Last Sunday, as we celebrated the Feast of the Baptism of Jesus, we were reminded of our own baptism: that we are God's sons and daughters; that we are loved; and that God's favour rests upon us. Throughout Ordinary Time, we will unpack the meaning of this more deeply by getting to know Jesus better — this year through Matthew's Gospel — and at the same time growing in our understanding of what it means to live out our baptismal call in the world.

Like last Sunday, today's Gospel again features John the Baptist. However, this weekend we sidestep Matthew's Gospel and hear from John, who presents John the Baptist in a different way. There is no mention of his clothing or his diet, nor does he confront the religious leaders. Instead, John the Baptist speaks about who Jesus is and reveals him to others. Why the difference? At the time of Jesus' baptism, there were two groups: followers of John the Baptist and followers of Jesus. Some of John's followers believed he was the Messiah, since Jesus was baptised by him, which seemed to place John in a position of greater importance. In this Gospel account, John the Baptist makes it very clear who Jesus truly is: “He existed before me,” and “it was to reveal him to Israel that I came.”

What is revealed to us here is that baptism challenges us to lead others to Jesus — by what we say and by what we do.

As I mentioned briefly last week, there will be some changes to our administration team in the coming weeks. Both Bridget and Vimal, who joined the Admin Hub team in late 2024, will be finishing up this week. We thank them sincerely for their contribution to the Hub and to our parishes, and we wish them every blessing wherever life takes them next.

As you are aware, expenses have increased significantly over the past year, particularly with insurance costs and the maintenance of ageing buildings. Therefore, I've had to make the decision that from mid-February, the Morisset office will only be open on Wednesdays and Fridays. I understand that this may be an inconvenience for some, but this decision has not been made lightly. From mid-2026, I hope to publish a parish budget and begin reporting more regularly on our financial position, so that everyone has a clearer picture of our parish finances — and I will make sure our Finance Committee keeps me to it! As Parish Priest, I must ensure the future viability of all our parishes and that we have an administration team that supports both parish life and our ministry now and into the future.

Have a good week everyone.

2nd Sunday in Ordinary Time Year A

First Reading (Isaiah 49: 3. 5-6)

A reading from the prophet Isaiah

The Lord said to me, 'You are my servant, Israel, in whom I shall be glorified';
I was honoured in the eyes of the Lord,
my God was my strength.
And now the Lord has spoken,
he who formed me in the womb to be his servant,
to bring Jacob back to him,
to gather Israel to him:

'It is not enough for you to be my servant,
to restore the tribes of Jacob and bring back the survivors of Israel;
I will make you the light of the nations
so that my salvation may reach to the ends of the earth.'

Responsorial Psalm (Ps 39: 2. 4. 7-10. R. vv.8.9)

(R.) Here I am, Lord; I come to do your will.

1. I waited, I waited for the Lord and he stooped down to me; he heard my cry. He put a new song into my mouth, praise of our God. (R.)
2. You do not ask for sacrifice and offerings, but an open ear. You do not ask for holocaust and victim. Instead, here am I. (R.)
3. In the scroll of the book it stands written that I should do your will. My God, I delight in your law in the depth of my heart. (R.)
4. Your justice I have proclaimed in the great assembly. My lips I have not sealed; you know it, O Lord. (R.)

Second Reading (1 Corinthians 1: 1-3)

A reading from the first letter of St Paul to the Corinthians

I, Paul, appointed by God to be an apostle, together with brother Sosthenes, send greetings to the church of God in Corinth, to the holy people of Jesus Christ, who are called to take their place among all the saints everywhere who pray to our Lord Jesus Christ; for he is their Lord no less than ours. May God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ send you grace and peace.

Gospel Acclamation (John 1: 14. 12)

Alleluia, alleluia!

The Word of God became flesh and dwelt among us.

He enabled those who accepted him to become the children of God.

Alleluia!

Gospel (John 1: 29-34)

A reading from the holy Gospel according to John

Seeing Jesus coming towards him, John said, 'Look, there is the lamb of God that takes away the sin of the world. This is the one I spoke of when I said: A man is coming after me who ranks before me because he existed before me. I did not know him myself, and yet it was to reveal him to Israel that I came baptising with water.' John also declared, 'I saw the Spirit coming down on him from heaven like a dove and resting on him. I did not know him myself, but he who sent me to baptise with water had said to me, "The man on whom you see the Spirit come down and rest is the one who is going to baptise with the Holy Spirit." Yes, I have seen and I am the witness that he is the Chosen One of God.'

LATEST NEWS FROM OUR SAFEGUARDING PROMOTERS 18 JANUARY 2026

The Promoters of Safeguarding continue to endorse a culture of safeguarding within the Parish.

In attempting to cool down during the summer season, children need safeguarding from scalding by hot water in garden hoses.

Parents and carers will be aware of scalding and burns from jugs, fires, hot water taps, matches, cooking oil and motorcycle exhausts. Many may be unaware that one of the most common causes of child burns leading to a trip to a hospital emergency department in summer is scalding by water from a garden hose exposed to direct sunlight. The sun can heat the water inside the hose (not flowing) to 60 °C, which can cause burns, especially to children. At 60 °C, it takes one second for hot water to produce 3rd degree burns. At 55 °C, it takes 10 seconds, and at 50 °C it takes 5 minutes. Before spraying someone with a garden hose in summer, the water needs to run for a minute.

The average temperature of domestic hot water in NSW is 70 °C, which prevents bacteria and diseases from growing. A tempering valve mixes hot and cold water to deliver water at 50°C for all bathrooms and 45°C for childcare and elderly care facilities.
